TSAKANE BUSI LUBISI

I am Tsakane Busi Lubisi I'm 21years old. I'm very proud to say I wasborn in Winterveld, and raised by both unemployed parents. I completed matric year 2006, and I had a dream of seeing myself in university, however I thought it was just a dream due to the fact that my parents can't afford to pay for my studies.

I stayed at home the whole January doing nothing, but watching my own life sinking in the river poverty, confusion and fear. Early February I decided to walk towards something that is worthwhile and good I joined Bokamoso Youth Centre. Bokamoso gave me the most crucial thing in my life, the drive to further my studies. This is my second year at University of South Africa (UNISA) where I am studying Information Technology (IT). It's a great honor to benefit from this scholarship. I've learned that despite the difficulties that I ancounter on my to success, all my dreams have to remain a vivid as ever. The challenges that I came across on my studies are lack of resources: I need PC for my studies and also need a mentor who can help me with my career path.

Furthering my studies is a long and steep way to make, however the fulfillment and gratification that feel knowing that I achieved my intricate dreams is unexplainable. I am the person I am today because of the dream and ambition that I have, which I was able to realize whit the help of Bokamoso and everyone who contributed to this scholarship and I am thankful for that…
