PEARL ZONDO

My name is Pearl Zondo. I am 20 years old and have been with Bokamoso for about two years now. When I joined Bokamoso, I was a hopeless but ambitious girl. I had so much goals to reach yet little help or belief. My parents could not help me to reach my goals. That was the fact-considering the fact that it was hard putting food on the table everyday.

Bokamoso came as a salvation to my almost lost dreams. Bokamoso rescued me and I live with despair no longer. I am currently studying psychology at the university of South Africa. I am really enjoying my course because, first of all I know it is really a blessing in my life. Secondly I have always loved helping people with their problems, so this is an opportunity for me to do it professional. Of course I have come across challenges but non of which are impossible to fix. I was struggling to get one most important text book, but is sorted out now-all thanks to Bokamoso. Bokamoso means a lot to me, they gave me a chance to have an education, as if that was not enough, they catered for my needs at school, as if it was not too much. They are always there to parent me, guide me and make me feel special.

I have recently begun a women support group at Bokamoso. The staff member supported the idea and they included it in the programs of the center. I love being at Bokamoso, I feel blessed to be part of such a generous and loving community.

Bokamoso is my home.
